

Billionloans raises fund from Reliance

Bengaluru: Billionloans Financial Services, a fintech company started by former Infosys board member V Balakrishna, has secured a seed funding of ₹7 crore from Reliance Corporate Advisory Services, a wholly owned subsidiary of Reliance Capital. The company focuses on providing flexible and affordable financing options to individuals and small traders, who cannot secure loans from the traditional banking system. In the next 3 years, the company plans to facilitate around ₹2,000 crore of loans.
