

At the top of the game: Funds you can rely on

HDFC EQUITY

Fund manager Prashant Jain shows dogged faith in his high conviction bets. The average portfolio turnover last year stood at 36%, which shows the fund manager stood his ground. It is now reaping rich dividends.

Large and mid-cap

CORPUS* | EXPENSE RATIO*
₹10,445cr | 2.18%

3-YR RETURN (%) (UNTIL 31 DEC 2013)
Scheme	Benchmark	Category
0.68	-0.18	1.56
3-MTH RETURN (%) (UNTIL 31 MAR 2014)
8.98	6.31	6.35

RELIANCE VISION

Fund manager Ashwani Kumar takes the path less travelled. He kept away from richly valued FMCG scrips and placed bets on auto and engineering stocks. This solid portfolio can come to the fore during a market rally.

Large and mid-cap

CORPUS* | EXPENSE RATIO*
₹2,412cr | 2.33%

3-YR RETURN (%) (UNTIL 31 DEC 2013)
Scheme	Benchmark	Category
-2.53	0.72	1.56
3-MTH RETURN (%) (UNTIL 31 MAR 2014)
10.3	6.02	6.35

RELIANCE REG SAVINGS EQ

Fund manager Omprakash Kuckian's willingness to take big sector bets often results in superior returns during a market rally. This strategy can deliver good results for investors with high-risk appetites.

Multi-cap

CORPUS* | EXPENSE RATIO*
₹2,173cr | 2.32%

3-YR RETURN (%) (UNTIL 31 DEC 2013)
Scheme	Benchmark	Category
-0.53	0.72	1.29
3-MTH RETURN (%) (UNTIL 31 MAR 2014)
6.32	6.02	5.93

HDFC TOP 200

An incredibly low turnover of 17% is indicative of fund manager Prashant Jain's buy-and-hold philosophy. Despite resorting to substantial deviations from the benchmark, the fund boasts an excellent track record.

Large cap

CORPUS* | EXPENSE RATIO*
₹10,320cr | 2.25%

3-YR RETURN (%) (UNTIL 31 DEC 2013)
Scheme	Benchmark	Category
1.42	-0.04	1.49
3-MTH RETURN (%) (UNTIL 31 MAR 2014)
7.74	5.96	5.88